You are not permitted to distribute software solutions from DryRun Pro to third parties. Any distribution without our express consent (including distribution for non-commercial use) is deemed a violation of the license policy. It is strictly prohibited to place our software solutions on to hosting locations that allow for distribution in the public domain. You are not permitted to give, sell, sub-license, rent or lease any portion of the software solution to anyone.

Accordingly, you are required to treat the software like any other copyrighted material. Any activity deemed a violation of copyright law will be prosecuted in accordance with current legislations. We retain full rights to revoke the license of any user found holding an invalid license.

Without prejudice to any other applicable rights, DryRun Pro reserves the right to terminate this license entitlement at any time if you fail to comply with the stated terms and conditions of this license. In the event you breach this agreement and your license is revoked, you must destroy all copies of DryRun Pro solution offerings in your possession. DryRun Pro is not bound to return you the amount spent for purchase of the solution offering due to the termination of this license.
